NNIES, each

ROME, April 7.—Fascist Italy has decided to try to replace what is termed here the 'Wilsonian method'" of guaranteeing European peace by what is also termed the

This conclusion is drawn in political circles from the text of the treaty of friendship, arbitration and conciliation between Italy and Hungary, which was signed in the Chigi Palace Tuesday night and which differs significantly in three respects from the similar treaties concluded recently between Italy and other nations.

These are, first, that the treat, contains no provision for registration with the League of Nations: second, that it reopens the path for the official restoration of "secret diplomacy," and third, that it renders remote any ultimate recourse to the International Court at The Hague for settlement of international dispues.

New Conciliation Method.

The text of the main treaty, in its failure to arrange for registration of the League of Nations, does not differ from other pacts, but a long appendix regulating the method of conciliation and arbitration offers a number of innovations indicating a departure from the League's method of peacemaking.

In the first place, the President of the Swiss Confederation will be invited to appoint the members of a special Italo- Hungarian commission of conciliation, composed of one Italian, one Hungarian and one neutral. Should either party, within three months appeal for conciliation, this commission will have the fullest powers for an inquiry into the dispute and will have the right to call upon both nations for evidence.

Secret Hearings Authorized.

The written or oral testimony of witnesses and experts will be governed by the regulations of The Hague convention of 1907.

The commission also will have the right to visit the places involved in the dispute and its work will be secret unless it decides otherwise with the consent of both parties. If a compromise cannot be reached the dispute will be handled by a tribunal to be appointed by both nations.

Unlike previous facts which make an appeal to the International Court at The Hague the highest recourse, the present treaty merely says that both parties retain "the faculty of submitting any juridicial controversy to The Hague court as a compromise step."

Either party will have the right to appeal to The Hague if the other fails to live up to the verdict of the conciliation commission after the elapse of six months.

the elapse of six months.

The entire press, while printing the text of the main treaty and commenting on it enthusiastically, refrains from publishing the text of the appendix concerning the methods of conciliation.

He Told Grand Jury Bondsman Louis Rose Committed Only Misdemeanor in False Swearing.

The contention of law upor which Circuit Attorney Sidener Louis Rose, professional bondsman, by two grand juries which wished to investigate a showing of perjury by Rose on the face of court records, is contrary to the opinion of the State Supreme Court.

In its consideration of a similar case against a man named Koslowesky, the Supreme Court in 1910 accepted the following statement of

"False swearing in a matter before an officer touching the suffi-ciency of bail offered for a person charged with a criminal offense is perjury at common law and under

The opinion went on to lay down the basis for proving such an offense as follows:

It provides fully and corruptly swear, testify or affirm falsely to any material matter upon any oath or affirmation legally administered in any cause matter or proceeding before any officr shall be deemed guilty of

Sidener's Opinion

Circuit Attorney Sidener took the view that Rose's act was mere-ly the making of a faise affidavit and a misdemeanor. As to this the Supreme Court clearly differentiates in its opinion betwen making a false affidavit of qualifications where no specific court matter is involved and swearing falsely to an affidavit to obtain the release of a prisoner duly charged with a

Had Rose confined his act to the filing of an affidavit with the Cir Court held in effect-would be a misdemeanor. But the opinio udifiedly states that if anyone falsely swears in a specific matte e courts and before an office of the law he is guilty of perjury

The chrage against Rose, as outlined by Circuit Judge Frey in a letter last November asking Siden er to take up the case, cover all the ground necessary to establish a case of perjury under the Su-preme Courts' decision. Rose appeared before Judge Frey, an of-ficer of the law, and after being warned not to falsify his qualifi-cations, made a false affidavit in order to obtain the relase of Tony Guarino on a. $10,000 bond. Moreover, Judge Frey says he warned Rose in Sidener's presence, to be careful to tell the truth.

The Case Against Rose.

Rose swore he owned four spe-cific pieces of property. Investi-

Then the last grand jury decided to call Sidener to account, but before it could invite him to appear he appeared voluntarily and told members of the jury at a conference: "You have no jurisdiction in the case." The grand jurors decided to accept Sidener's legal judgment in the

A Post-Dispatch reporter, after it became known how Sidener had for a second time halted consideration of the Rose case, reminded the Circuit Attorney that the United States District Attorney's office had indicted Rose for perfury for doing the same thing in the Federal Court as he had in the State court-swearing falsely to an affidavit as to his qualifications.
Sidener replied that the Federal

He has announced that he is the head of the "America First Association." which will be established in every state of the Union ... . to the end that delegates will be sent to both national conventions standing for America first and voting for America-first candidates."

It used to be a safe rule during the war that the further a man was from the battle front the louder and the more violent were his protestations of patriotism. The the civilians: It is an equally safe rule ness of their patriotism are not to be trust ed very far. They are patriots for what there is in it. Thompson belongs to this class. as anybody else. Men like Thompson have no standards of honor to restrain them. They will do anything they can get away with. They confidence men who work the public they can. If the public is not shrewd enough to see through their game, the public is a sucker. The majority which voted for Thompson are not intelligent, free, selfgoverning citizens of a republic. They are suckers. They are not the only suckers in the land, but at the moment they are nost conspicuous ones,

Why the patriotic swindle worked so wel in Chicago is an interesting question. The main reason is that really patriotic people have not yet mustered up courage to expose this type of swindle so that people ar wise to it. The financial swindler still flourishes, but when he is caught, no one esitates to expose him and denounce him But a patriotic swindler has a certain immunity. Men are afraid to tackle him and show him up, for fear of being accused of being unpatriotic themselves. So he flourishes almost unchallenged and unmolested. Yet to any man who cares deeply about his country the patriotic swindle is, next to the religious swindle, the most obnoxious of all swindles. A charlatan, a faker, a grafter, quoting Scripture or waving the rational view of the thing it is unpatric kind of patriotism which allows men like Phompson to exploit what we hold dear. Their assumption of patriotism is an impudent lie and our toleration of their impudence is largely laziness and cowardice.

THE BOBOLINK.

From the New Orleans Times-Picayune. SECRETARY JARDINE has issued an order forbidding the killing of bobolinks. There are exceptions-the rice planters who, by special permit, will be allowed to shoot the birds, between Aug. 15 and Nov. 15, when they are seriously injuring their crops.

This will be very different from the previous attitude toward the bird which, though a bobolink at the North, becomes during its southward migration first a reedbird, and the horses run, and John Philip Hill make then a ricebird, as it reaches its beloved rice fields and eats itself so plump that there is o richer dainty on earth. Yet even that is not its final name. When it strikes Louisiana it comes under the Creole name of grasset, and as it speeds on out over the Gulf and Caribbean and reaches Jamaica once more it becomes English and is aptly named butter bird. Audubon said of it: In the earliest approaches of spring, in Louisiana, when small flocks of male boboinks make their first appearance they sing in concert; and their song thus given is at once novel, interesting and striking. Uttered with a volubility that even borders upon the ourlesque and the ludicrous, the whole effect is greatly heightened by the singular and striking manner in which first one singer and then another, one following the other until all have joined their voices, take up the note and strike it, after the leader has set the example and given the signal. In this anner sometimes a party of 30 or 40 bobolinks will begin, one after the other, until nary medley, to which no pen can do jus-

For a Smooth Skin is the gift of soap made the French way

The country that understands women-France!

The women of every nation turning to Paris-buying loveliness from the wisdom of France.

The whole world has looked to France for fine toilet soaps. For wise France knows that her incomparable cosmetics lose their magic unless the skin in itself is exquisite. Smooth, youthful skin! Cheeks and arms and gleaming shoulders, velvety, petal-like.

For this France developed the famous French method by which Lux Toilet Soap is made.

What promise in just its creamy smoothness! In this firm, fine-textured lasting cake! The caressing, instant lather (hard water on the Continent taught the French that secret) soothes and refreshes your skin, leaves it faintly fragrant,

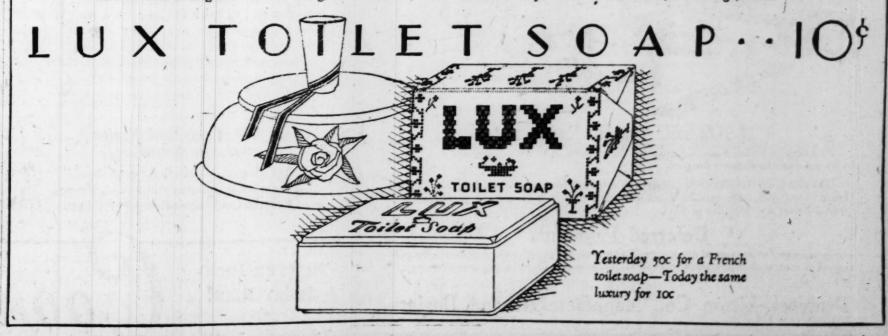

Its every quality is French—the very things you loved in imported soap, recklessly paid 500 or a dollar for as a

The bloom it gives your skin is French!

With her genius for achievement America puts this savon de toilette within the reach of all the family. "Make us a soap as wonderful as fine French soap but much less costly," you told the world's largest soap makers. "Somehowsome way-it can be done."

You were right! Lux Toilet Soap proves it. Generous, delicious, it is just ten cents! At last - a savon de toilette at a reasonable price. Lever Bros. Co., Cambridge, Mass.

Viscount Cecil. England, yester day handed M., Paul-Boncour, France, a counter proposal to the French 'plan of limiting warship onnage as a whole, without specifying the class of ships to be con-structed; but with the signatory dowers notifying other nations of heir building programs. Viscount Cecil suggested that France reveal her naval building plans sufficiently far ahead to give other powers adequate notice and also that she notify other sig-natories at a given interval in advance of any changes in building plans. A dispute arose over private ourparlers among the delegates, in which Paul-Boncour communi-cated to Cecil and Hugh Gibson, American representative, the text of his naval limitation proposal. Gen. De Marinis, Italy, remarked that he would want time to consult Rome regarding any agreement reached by private negotiations.

Thereupon, Paul-Boncour, who nterpreted this declaration as a iticism of his action, denied that here had been any secret conversations. The Italian delegate retorted he had not implied that anyhing had been hidden.

Rich quarry tiles - Armstrong's latest suggestion Actually embossed, like a hand-set floor of comfortable linoleum blocks of varied

sizes and blended colorings

IF you were to ask Armstrong's head de-I signer to make an entrance-hall floor especially to order for you, this new pattern would be his answer.

Do you want dignity? Color? A warm welcome? An easy floor to clean? Armstrong's Embossed Inlaid Linoleum—now being shown at local department, homefurnishing, and linoleum stores—has all these qualities.

Notice the pattern-a pleasant grouping of many-sized tiles. Notice the framing mortar lines-embossed, or pressed into the surface of the floor. But this advertisement cannot show the colors-varying shades harmoniously combined. Nor the finish-waxed to a soft glow. Nor can you feel the springiness and comfort of this floor underfoot. Nor can you tell that a waxed brush will clean it jiffy-quick.

Yet this pattern is only one of scores of new Armstrong designs now being shown in this Spring Display. See them this week.

THE WET ISSUE

Senator Glass in Statement Makes That Prerequisite FRI. & SAT. of Southern Support for

By DAVID LAWRENCE, Special Wahsington Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch.

WASHINGTON, April 7.—If Al mith wants the support of the cratic delegates from the South, he "must let the prohibi issue alone." This is the true significance of the statement by Senator Glass of Virginia, who brushes aside the religious issue and says that of course a Catholic an be elected president.

In the Virginia Senator's rearks, the politically minded here w a clear-cut definition on be of Southern leaders of what ney want to elicit from Smith beore they will agree to support him. Glass went so far even as to give he New York Governor a cue by ointing out that a President canot change the Constitution and a change in the Voistead act is something for Congress and not the executive to decide. Glass itedly recalls that the last Democratic President vetoed the Volstead act which would presumbly make him a wet in the eyes many people, but this did not ent Congress from overriding veto by a two-thirds vote. In Smith to change his personal riews on prohibition, but is asking nat he refrain from making it an atute books, this probably will go ong way toward winning him uthern support at this stage. llass' remarks are really a turn-ng point in the campaign. They nean that the broader-minded ders of Southern Democracy are going to make intolerance an but will stick to their guns on prohibition question. ake the kind of statement on this ne will at least bring into l amp a good many Southern Demo rats who are waiting for his pro nouncement before coming out in support of his candidacy. If, on the contrary, the New York Governor issue, the fight against him will be begun on those lines rather than on religious grounds.

Smith really has no campaign under way and has selected no Even Franklin who managed Smith campaign at the Madison Square Garden convention told the by saying that neither he nor any. one else was in any sense manag-ing the New York Governor's canother advocate of Smith's candispontaneous nature of the support e is getting in Democratic circles. While Smith is not seeking delegates there are thousands of friends who are trying to do it for him, which makes the whole movement one of the most remarkable in poitical annals.

When the history of the present pre-convention campaign comes to be written, it will be found that the statement of Senator Glass on the necessity of letting the prohibition issue alone and the reply that Smith is preparing to the immediate inquirer in the Atlantic Monthy who has asked him to define his future allegiance on religion and Government, will be found to be ease or decrease of Smith's strength

Bryn Coldstream, a veritable lightning flash, will have a chance to move up a notch in the second race. He won his second start at three-sixteenths in runaway fashion, sprinting in with a 50-root lead, but may find some drifficulty in getting around two bends. Usually a young runner gets knocked around the first time he tries to go the quarter. Old La Verne will beat the fast youngster if he makes any Hipolyte de Bernard, one of the prominent local owners, has a strong hand in the fourth with Reigning Regent. The snow-flecked black racer wants an outside position and has finally drawn it. Artful Henry is in fine fettle and will go well with Knocklofty next.

Sterling Dogs Go Over. Happy Sweep, another De Bernard grayhound, looks like the solid dog in the seventh. Bitter Sweet and Dora Ridge rate closely and will be there or thereabouts.

In the eighth Charles Sterling will introduce Ballyknockin, little other of Suir Side. He piled up a nice string of victories in the South and should be in the money. Pearlman, because of a previous good effort, might beat the Sterling dog tonight.

Two Sterling dogs, Orpiment and Steeple View, fulfilled the owner's prediction last night that they would be "up there." Steeple View easily dominated the eighth race, a futurity, coming in ahead of Seadoone and Robin. Orpiment likewise was too fast for the futurity field in the seventh, holding Skeex and Golden Shred safe.

Lots of grief was registered by ackers of Nell Gwynne and Just Joke in the fifth at five-sixteenths. It was strictly a duel be-tween them and they swung into he stretch with Nell Gwynne headng her rival, and both about seven lengths in the van. Just A Joke didn't relish being passed and started a fight and, while the two stopped and argued, the rest of the pack thundered by, Farmer Pete taking first position. Nell Gwynne had closed at 7 to 1 odds.

FRIGIDAIRE-LOW Cost Refrigeration

Frigidaire maintains cold storage temperatures without ice—without attention

MEAT merchants, grocers, restaurant owners those whose business depends upon good refrigeration-say they never realized how much time and labor it took to keep their refrigerator cold before they installed Frigidaire. They say that Frigidaire is actually equal to an extra man.

Frigidaire costs less than ice

To be able to buy perishables in larger quantities and to be sure that they will keep in perfect condition until they are sold-to leave the store on Saturday night, confident that Monday morning will see his stock of meats, vegetables, dairy products or other per- and increase ishables ready to sell to the most fastidious customer-to keep his refrigerator at a uniformly low temperature without the daily necessity of reicing-these considerations would make Frigidaire show a profit. But in addition to all these advantages, Frigidaire's operating cost is actually less than the cost of ice.

AT THE first sneeze or cough—use hot lemonade. Serve a glassful, piping hot, after a warm bath. Then put your little one to bed. Use plenty of covers. Pin them down so turning won't admit the chilling air. In nine cases out of ten the cold will disappear by morning, if you've 'nipped' it thus in time.

Prevent possible pneumo-nia, or the "flu" in this simplest, surest, safest way. You may save days, or several weeks of sickness. Just squeeze the juice of one lemon in a glass or cup of hot water add honey or sugar if you wish.

California Lemons are the juicy, tart and practically seedless kind. Best for hot lemonade, so always ask for them.

Why Do They Do It?

about New York's latest alleged crime of passion—the killing of Albert Snyder, for which his wife are. But few of the state of the stat and Henry Judd Gray, her lover, are under indictment—have touched, with curious unanimity, on a phase of the tragedy no woman can understand. We certainly can not! The problem is this: Why did Henry Judd Gray carry on that two-year affair with Mrs. Snyder, when he himself was the first to admit that he loved his wife, adored his daughter and found happiness in his home?

Mrs. Snyder insisted to the very beginning, that a chasm of years and tastes separated her from her husband. She didn't go around explaining how much she loved him. That teems to have been precisely Mr. Gray's procedure in regard to the wife he was cheating and on whom falls the chief suffering in the present tragedy.

What is the logical or psychology.

Why—why—why do men do that fort of thing? Anybody with imagination can understand a grand passion, or even a not-so-grand infatuation on the part of a man who is unhappily married. With a free movement of the arms, I grab a tea-towel, lift the ice off the shelf and heave it into the icebox, thus losing half a pound of superfluous flesh a day, and at least one finger-nail a week.

After that I do a graceful pas-seul to the kitchen range and take a few wrist-exercises with the coffee percolator.

Running back to the shower, I make half a dozen vigorous passes with the bath towel, and am out again before my husband has wakened

My breakfast is very light, as I have to serve all the family first, and the coffee is usually cold before I get any. Dieting is not only good for the complexion, but it also ennobles the soul, keeps the waistline trim, and reduces the household expenses.

Finding my husband's shoes gives me a wonderful chance for my daily bending exercises, and digging his clean socks and shirt out from the bottom chiffonier drawer keeps my hips dainty and slender.

My breathing exercises consist in telling him what I think of him for kicking his shoes under the middle of the bed, leaving his safety razor on the bath tub ledge and spattering the mirror with

A NEW STORY OF LOVE, ADVENTURE

Granville Boyd, owner and navigator of the yacht Rigel, anchored in the harbor at Hamilton, Bermuda, is about to start on a semi-scientific expedition around the world. He is accompanied by his sister, Carillon, and a party of scientists. Carillon meets Bengal Dodd, who has brought his yacht Gunga to Bermuda on her maiden cruise, and she asked Dodd to tag along with the Rigel. Obtaining Boyd's consent Dodd asks Jim Howland and his daughter Gertrude to accompany them. As they are about to leave, a widow at one of the Hamilton hotels loses her fewels and Carillon is suspected of the theft. Bengal Dodd is a former district attorney of New York and he decides to do everything in his power to help Carillon clear herself of the suspicion. He suspects Mrs. Ransome's maid, Irma, who formerly worked for Carillon. While Boyd and Dedd are in Hamilton working on a clew. Mrs. Ransome, accompanied by Irma, comes aboard the Rigel and assures Carillon that she is certain of her innocence and tells her she is free to leave on the Rigel whenever she pleases. The two boats start off agreeing to meet at Port au Prince.
